Thank you for joining us at The Village Green. You've become part of a history that stretches back to 1919 when this building was a four lane bowling alley. Simon's Alleys was run by the Simon family until 1976. In 1944 the family had intended for the bar and lanes to be operated by Jim 'Jumbo' Simon and his brother William 'Sonny' Simon. Sadly, Sonny was killed in action during WWII, and other family members stepped in.

In 1950 the name was changed to The Village Green. The name was meant to evoke feelings of community like the traditional village greens of England and Wales, where everyone was welcome to rest, play games, and enjoy each other's company. For many years The Village Green did just that, and in 1976 Ron Boyer wanted to continue the tradition. Ron had been selling commercial kitchen appliances and ran several Kelly's Hamburgers fast food restaurants. And most famously had been the drummer for Steve Miller. In 1978 he installed the kitchen, tiled over the original bowling lanes, and created the tavern that we all love today. For 47 years Ron and his wife, 'Cricket', and their children made The Village Green the institution it is today.

In 2005 I was 15 when I first met Ron, as he shook my hand and gave me my first job as a Friday night bus-boy. I worked as a busser and eventually a cook and bartender over the next nearly 20 years. In 2007 I graduated from Middleton and joined the US Army. After 4 years, and 2 tours to Afghanistan, I moved back to Middleton to go to school and started working here again.

In 2023 Ron shook my hand again, this time handing me the keys to the building. I am proud to continue the tradition the Simon's started in 1919 and the Boyers refined in 1976.

I cannot thank you enough for being here, whether this is your first visit or whether you're part of the families that have been coming here for generations we are happy to have you. Please, find a seat anywhere you like, sit back, relax, and enjoy your visit.

Cheers!
-Andrew Shuck
